Bass' Slayer Will Hang On October 25

HAMILTON IS FOUND GUILTY BY JURY TWO WEEKS AFTER OFFICER IS SLAIN

TRIAL WAS CONCLUDED LATE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON AND VERDICT WAS REPORTED PROMPTLY.

Given a Fair Hearing

MURDERER ACCEPTED SENTENCE WITHOUT BATTLING AN EYE-SMOKED CIGARETTE AND APPEARED MOST CHEERFUL.

Will Lee Hamilton, thirteen days after he shot and killed Police Officer F. A. Bass, was yesterday afternoon found guilty of murder in the first degree in the circuit court by a jury of his peers and was sentenced by Judge Robt. Brickell to hang on October 25. The date of the execution is the earliest that the law could impose.

The verdict was returned about 5:30 o'clock and within less than half an hour from the time that attorneys had concluded their arguments and the jury had received its charge from the bench. The trial was one of the quickest on record. Taking of testimony began at 1:30 o'clock and was concluded shortly after 3:30 o'clock.

Solicitor D. C. Almon, who conducted the prosecution single handed, opened the argument for the state. He was followed by O. W. Chennault and C. L. Price for the defense. Mr. Almon made the concluding speech. Hamilton, who throughout the trial has displayed a remarkable nonchalance, was calm as usual when the death sentence was pronounced shortly after the jury had filed in with its unanimous verdict obtained on the first ballot. When asked by Judge Brickell if he had any statement to make he said that he had not. He stood and received the sentence without a trace of emotion. Apparently he was as calm as any person in the court room.

"Have a cigarette," said W. E. Crawford postmaster of Decatur, before the negro was led back to the jail. Hamilton accepted the invitation and expressed his thanks.

"A cigarette was the first thing he asked for after being placed under arrest," said Mr. Crawford, by way of explanation.

Had Fair Trial

Although without money or friends, Hamilton was given a fair trial. He was ably defended by his counsel, who served without compensation. Although realizing that they had a weak case, the attorneys took advantage of every possible legal technicality and did their best to secure a lighter sentence for their client. Judge Brickell presided with great fairness, and had arranged for the suppression of any possible demonstration in the court room that night have influenced the verdict. There was none, however, the large crowd showing no more feeling than if it had been a civil case that was being fought out.

Evidence Was Brief

The evidence was brief, the state calling only a portion of its witnesses and the defense placing only the defendant on the stand. It was 8 o'clock when the prosecution rested its case yesterday afternoon, and at 3:40 the court granted a short recess preliminary to the arguments of attorneys.

Hamilton took the stand in his own behalf and related his version of the tragedy, which was largely at variance with that of other witnesses. He said that he arrived in Decatur at 4:15 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and that it was about dusk on the same day when Officer Bass came to the home of the Sykes woman and asked him in regard to a difficulty he had with her. He knew that Mr. Bass was a patrolman, but "didn't know which one was him." The Sykes woman had gone up on Bank street and at his request the officer

(International News Service)

The wet forces in the House will fight for an extension of the time for national prohibition from July 1, 1919, as provided for in the amendment, to December 1, 1919. It is confidently predicted that the senate amendment will be passed next week.

CLOTHING FOR SHIVERING BELGIANS TO BE COLLECTED BY LOCAL WOMEN

Announcement was made today by the local Red Cross committee, handling the Belgium and Northern France appeal for clothes for refugees, of articles particularly wanted.

The refugee clothes are being collected by every Red Cross chapter in the United States, and the Gulf Division—Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama—is called upon to furnish at least 150 tons.

"The people should picture in their minds their own children, or the neighbor's children going about the streets in rags and hungry; their faces showing the terror of slavery at the hands of the Huns—then, we feel, our appeal for old, warm clothes will be quickly answered," is the announcement of the local Red Cross committee.

Here are the garments particularly needed:

Men—shirts, preferably of light colored flannels; undershirts, undershirts, trousers, coats, work suits, shoes, overcoats, jerseys, sweaters, socks sizes 10½ and 11.

Women—skirts, drawers, petticoats, two-piece suits, pinafores, shoes, cloth hats, knitted caps and stockings, sizes 7 and 8.

Boys—shirts, union suits, undershirts, trousers, coats, suits, shoes, overcoats, jerseys, socks, sizes 1 and 9.

Girls—dresses, skirts, overcoats, nightdresses, drawers, stockings (sizes 1 to 6) undergarments, petticoats, two-piece suits, blouses, shoes.

Infants—swan-skin, swaddling clothes, cradle dresses, sweaters, bonnets, bibs, neckerchiefs, diapers, shoes, baby dresses, hooded cloaks, jacket, shawls, socks.

Miscellaneous—bed ticks, bed sheets, pillow cases, blankets, mufflers.

The appeal for the clothes is to every home in this section, the Red Cross states, and every home is expected to contribute at least one piece of old, warm clothing.

The Albany and Decatur chairman of the refugee work will announce later the method to be employed in making collections.

BERLIN'S REPLY TO PEACE PROPOSAL HAD BEEN EXPECTED

(International News Service)
Washington, Sept. 21.—Germany's reply accepting the Austrian proposal to talk peace in a non-binding conference was exactly what was expected here. It does not change the situation. The entire incident is a closed book so far as the U. S. is concerned.

Advices received here indicate that the central powers will make another move in their peace maneuvers in the near future. Berlin and Vienna are reported again in conference. Officials, however, very frankly state that nothing definite can come from political moves that do not accept the outlined policy of the U. S., something which the German leaders are not ready to do.

MOEBES TO ENTER REALTY BUSINESS

Mr. Moebes will specialize in buying, selling and otherwise dealing in Albany and Decatur real estate and farm lands. He is one of the liveliest wires in this section of the state, and his friends predict that he will put some "pep" into the realty game, as well as aiding in the development of the Twin Cities.

SERBS ADVANCE TEN MILES IN ONE DAY; TURK ARMY BEATEN

BRITISH AND FRENCH DRAW NEAR TO ST. QUENTIN, WHICH SEEMS DOOMED.

AMERICANS CONTINUE TO SHELL METZ

Army of 18,000 Ottoman Troops Cut Off in Palestine.

(International News Service)
Washington, Sept. 21.—"With the 10,000 prisoners which were brought in on September 18, we are not far from reaching a total of 200,000 Germans captured by the French, English and Americans since July 18," says the war correspondent of the Temps, according to an official French dispatch received here this afternoon.

Staggering blows are now being struck the Germans and their allies in three theatres of war—French, Balkan and Turkish—and today these were followed by brilliant strokes on the western front which won more ground for both the French and British troops. Another battle has blazed up northwest of St. Quentin where the Germans are making a desperate effort to break down the allied offensive.

British and French troops gained ground northwest and south of St. Quentin. Benay, only four miles from the chief objective, was captured. The British have improved their positions in Flanders near the Franco-Belgian frontier. The Americans continue to pound the German positions around Metz with their big guns, while patrol clashes are becoming more frequent.

The week closed today on the offensive in the Balkans which is having magnificent results. The Bulgarian rout is complete and the wild flight of the Bulgarian soldiers continues. A force of 18,000 Turks in Palestine is believed to be cut off and faced with immediate capture. The British and French in Palestine have advanced 12 miles.

Victorious blows are now being struck by the allies in the three great theatres of war. The latest of these widely separated thrusts in Palestine was by the British troops under Gen. Allenby, in which an advance of 12 miles was made and 3,000 Turks captured. Important lines of communication were cut. A heavy force of Turkish troops has been cut off.

Allied forces in the Balkans are still driving hard against the Bulgarians and extending their victories there. All of the Bulgarian trench systems on the Serbian front have been broken. The Tcherma river has been crossed at Monastir.

(International News Service)
With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Sept. 20.—American gun fire broke up another German attack on Friday which was launched against our troops near Bois de Rappes over a front of two miles.

(International News Service)
With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Sept. 21.—One hundred Germans, led by two officers, debouched for Dempoix last night and attempted to emplace heavy machine guns and two light guns near the American advanced line. Our artillery blew up the post and scattered the enemy.

(International News Service)
London, Sept. 21.—Serbian troops on the offensive in the Balkans advanced over 10 miles in one day and have captured the village of Prilep, it was learned this afternoon. The Serbian left wing captured 10 villages and many prisoners from the retreating Bulgarians. Allied cavalry is advancing from Poloskov toward the Vardar river. The troops on the Serbian center have captured Dragojel, Strigovo and Krymvo, reaching the Bosha river only 12 miles from Vemirkatu. The total advance is now 30 miles over a 25-mile front.

(International News Service)
London, Sept. 21.—The British line has been slightly advanced again northwest of Bellinglisse, the war office announced today. Another battle has blazed up east of Epehy, which is now in British hands.

(International News Service)
Paris, Sept. 24.—French troops pressing upon St. Quentin on the south have captured Benay and made progress north of the village, the French war office reported today. A German counter attack was repulsed.

PRESIDENT WILL TAKE OVER COTTON CROP AND FIX PRICE

(International News Service)
Washington, Sept. 21.—President Wilson will fix the price of cotton, placing the last of the principal commodities necessary in the prosecution of the war under Governmental regulation, despite strong pressure from the Southern states. In addition to determining the price, the Government will take over control of the distribution of this year's crop.

The decision of the President, definitely announced at a conference this week with Senators and Representatives from the cotton states, became known today. Plans to carry out the decision are said to be under way.

AMUSEMENTS

NORMA TALMADGE

IN "THE MOTH"

Masonic Today

From a would-be modern Cleopatra trifling with Fate and forever in pursuit of pleasure to an unselfish and devoted woman wrapped up in her two small children—that is the character transition portrayed by the versatile Norma Talmadge in her screen impersonation of the heroine of "The Moth," her newest Selznick-Picture which is seen today at Masonic Theatre. Abounding in emotional possibilities and dramatic incidents, the plot is calculated to give the charming young star an opportunity to add one more artistic interpretation to her already amazing list of successes.

The story of the scenario is one that will focus the attention and delight the imagination. Lucy Gillman, the Moth, is a capricious heiress still in her teens and without parental guidance when she becomes fascinated by the subject of the Egyptian Cleopatra who "fired her way to immortality." A passage in one of her textbooks about the famous queen so excited Lucy's imagination that she immediately started in search of her Anthony.

CURRY-WILKERSON WEDDING PARTY COMPLEMENTED.

Following the rehearsal of the Curry-Wilkerson wedding at the church last evening, Mesdames S. M. Thompson and W. R. Shelton entertained at the residence of Mrs. Thompson.

The wedding decorative motif was carried in yellow and green expressed in Black-eyed Susans and greens. Wicker baskets of this attractive fall flowers nodded a welcome to the happy party. Jackson vines climbed gracefully on windows and mantels. The dining table was most attractive; the lace draped board was centered by a Florentine basket of the preferred flower, the handle was decorated with a fleecy yellow bow over which hovered brilliant butterflies.

The feature of entertainment was short readings by the talented Miss Fannie Johnson whose selections were choice. As an exponent of "natural expression" she compares favorably with the great readers of the country.

Ices, mints and nuts were served. The ices repeating the decorative motif. Only the wedding party was included in the invitation.

The hostesses received their guests wearing cream colored gowns of serge and silk.

PATRIOTIC PRESBYTERIAN PEOPLE AND THOSE OF OTHER DENOMINATIONS.

The "Band" of which Mrs. Will Wyker is chairman, on a pledge for personage repairs, went to Irwin plantation of Mr. Sam Irwin yesterday in automobiles with picnic dinner to pick cotton. Mr. Irwin proved a good sport giving each one who picked fifty pounds a bonus of 25c, which with the bets of $1.00 made with friends that no one would pick 50 lbs. together with a donation from Mr. Irwin realized $18.50 for the cause. Mrs. Sam Irwin picked 71 lbs., Mrs. Harlow 62 lbs., Mrs. Reese 75 lbs., Miss Sencor 50 lbs., Mrs. Webb 86 lbs., Mrs. Dinsmore 7 lbs., Mrs. Frank Lide 50 lbs., Mrs. John Almon 62 lbs., Mrs. Will Wyker 75 lbs. Mrs. Webb won the Thrift Stamp offered by Mrs. Wyker to one who picked the most. A donation from Mr. McGregor to the "Plucky Pickers" brought the amount up to $20.00.

DECATUR SING.

The Decatur Community Sing held its initial meeting last night at the city schools auditorium, under most auspicious circumstances. A large crowd was out despite the fact that another important meeting, that of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society at the Decatur City Hall was in progress at the same hour. The damp cool evening seemed only to add ginger to the large class of singers. Miss Bassett, who acted as musical director last night, was high in her praise of the enthusiasm and patriotism manifested. Mrs. Vera Austell, who is community chairman for the sings at Decatur, opened the meeting in an appropriate address. She introduced Hon. E. C. Payne chairman of the Morgan County Council of Defense. Mr. Payne called attention to the great importance that he and all patriotic citizens attach to the spirit of singing of patriotic songs, by large companies of people. He encouraged the members of the new sing society to be satisfied with nothing but the best. Miss Florence Bassett county director of the Liberty Chorales expressed her great interest in the sings and her staunch determination to do her all to see that they were a success throughout the county. Mrs. W. C. Bailey is the musical director for Decatur, but Miss Bassett acted in that capacity last night with Mrs. W. C. Bailey as the solo leader of "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mrs. F. S. Hunt, led the chorals "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Miss Gertrude Johnson sang "Daddy Mine" to the pleasure of all. Little Billie McNeill made a hit with the solo: "Hello Central, Give Me the Trenches."

"Joan of Arc" was sung by Miss Mary Pulley. Then "The Old Folks at Home" came as a chorus. The final number was "The Star Spangled Banner" with all the audience standing. The Decatur sings are to remain a permanent fixture, and all patriotic people are invited to cooperate.

Hamilton is Found Guilty by a Jury

was discharged. Hamilton called attention to a scar or abrasion on his left arm, near the elbow, which he said had been caused by powder burns when Officer Bass' pistol was discharged.

"When he fired the gun he dropped it and I reached after it," the witness stated. Without waiting to ascertain if Mr. Bass was dead or injured, Hamilton said that he jumped up, picked the revolver up from where it had fallen and ran down

Pond street. Under cross examination he detailed his movements, telling how he had gone to the home of the Sykes woman's sister on Crawford Row. After staying there for about 30 minutes he had walked away and had come back shortly afterwards for a drink of water. He stayed but a short while, then proceeded across town toward the Southern Railway tank where he had slept in the weeds the remainder of Saturday night and all day Sunday, catching a freight train for Sheffield Sunday night at 10 o'clock. He fired the engine and worked his way. Monday and Tuesday nights he worked as a fireman at Sheffield and was arrested Wednesday. He admitted that when arrested he gave the name of "Will Thomas." In explanation of why he had secreted himself in the weeds, the defendant said that he feared the officer would arrest him.

Brown Examined

Frank Brown, undertaker, was the first witness called. He stated that Mr. Bass had been shot in the right side below the nipple, the bullet lodging in his body under the skin. He stated that there was a slight red place on the right arm, in line with the other wound had the officer's arm been raised at the time the shot was fired.

Jim Williams, a negro, the second witness, stated that he heard Alice Bridgeforth say "don't let him kill Mr. Bass" and that he heard the shot fired. Hamilton had the pistol in his hand following its discharge. The defendant was lying on Bass when the shot was fired. He went to Mr. Bass and extinguished his clothing, which had been set on fire.

Rosa Chaney

Rosa Chaney also told of witnessing the killing, her testimony corroborating that of other witnesses for the state. Hamilton had attacked Bass with the razor when the latter stepped back to pull his pistol and fell. Mr. Bass got up after being shot and walked about eight feet.

Matthias Chaney told practically the same story.

Alice Bridgeforth, a well-known negro woman, stated that she was standing on Bank street when Lock-er T. Sykes, a negress, approached and told of Hamilton having threatened her with a razor. The officer had then gone down Pond street, returning a few moments later to the corner of Bank street, accompanied by Hamilton. After the Sykes woman had asked that Hamilton be arrested the officer said "Come on" and Hamilton attacked him with a razor. The officer backed away, slipped and fell and Hamilton jumped on him and after a tussle shot him with his own gun. After the shooting, she said, a man who had approached had been warned not to come on, or he would shoot again. This feature of the testimony was also substantiated by other witnesses.

Bass' Last Words

Patrolman Bass' last words were "Halbrooks tell my wife," according to the testimony of G. C. Halbrooks, a former member of the Decatur police force. Halbrooks was standing in front of the Owl Drug Store, just at dusk, when he saw Hamilton, more than a block away, advance on Mr. Bass with a razor. He started hurriedly to the scene, and when Hamilton made a second lunge with the razor he began to run. He saw Mr. Bass step back a pace or two, then turn to run and fall on his face. As the officer turned on his left side, Hamilton jumped on him and shot him once. He saw Bass then get up and walk 15 to 30 steps into Bank street, while the negro fled down Pond. He went to Mr. Bass and the latter told him that he had been shot by Hamilton. Bass probably lived a half minute after Halbrooks reached him.

M. B. Donaldson

M. B. Donaldson, an employee of the Southern Railway Company, passed between the officer and the negro as they stood talking and walked some 30 steps down Bank street when he heard the scuffle begin and turned and ran back. He saw the negro strike with his razor, then jump on Bass when the latter fell. Hamilton grabbed Bass' revolver with his left hand and the officer's throat with his right, he testified. He didn't see the gun fired.

This witness was the only one who said that the officer dropped his revolver when he fell and that it was picked up by the negro.

Mr. Bass' pistol was placed in evidence by the state, just before it rested in rebuttal. The weapon was loaded with the exception of one empty chamber.
